

JD·SWEID FOODS
since 1917

February 10, 2022

Out of an abundance of precaution, JD Sweid Foods has voluntarily decided to recall a specific production lot of Hampton House Chicken Nuggets due to a possible salmonella risk.

This recall only applies to products with a Best Before Date of November 10, 2022. Any other dates are not included in this notice. The recalled product was sold in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Consumers are advised to either throw the product out or return it to the place of purchase for a full refund.

No illnesses have been associated with this product.

This is the first time the Hampton House Chicken Nuggets have been recalled.

Please always follow cooking and handling instructions featured on the package. Cooking chicken products to a minimum internal temperature of 74°C will ensure food safety.

Notice of recall from CFIA can be found here: <https://recalls-rappels.canada.ca/en/alert-recall/hampton-house-brand-chicken-nuggets-recalled-due-salmonella>

9696-199A Street
Langley, BC Canada
V1M 2X7

T. 604.888.8662
F. 604.888.0074

About Hampton House Foods

At Hampton House we take pride in providing our customers with superb-tasting products and the ultimate in convenience. We take the time and effort in creating our mouth-watering product so that you can enjoy homestyle cooking.

www.hamptonhousefoods.com

About JD Sweid Foods

As one of the largest privately owned, value-added protein providers in Canada, our commitment to supplying high quality products has been the core of our success. With a portfolio that includes a full line of poultry, beef and pork products, we service a long list of customers in both retail and foodservice. Our facilities are GFSI-certified and federally-inspected.

We are a proud member of the Hallmark Farms group of companies, the largest chicken processor in Western Canada and one of the largest in Canada.

www.jdsweid.com